The BANK

The Merchant (You) will be affiliated to a major Bank for your EFTPOS processing facility. WESTPAC, BNZ, ASB, NATIONAL, and ANZ are examples of these.

Choose your Bank

For new Credit card merchants, you may choose the Bank you process through, and may choose based on the best rates offered for Credit Card transactions. However if you will take EFTPOS (Debit) transactions only, you will process through your Business Bank.

Bank Charges

For new merchants, your Bank may -

- Charge a one-off setup fee of up to $150 for an EFTPOS and/or Credit card facility.
- Charge a % of every Credit card transaction. (Between 1 & 3 %)
- Require a minimum 2 or 3 year term & a minimum monthly payment for a credit card facility.
- Will demand increasingly secure standards for EFTPOS machines over time.
- Networkz provides free upgrades to meet the minimum Bank requirements for processing on Paymarks EFTPOS network for the term of your rental contract.

The EFTPOS Network

In New Zealand there are 2 EFTPOS processing networks. All EFTPOS transactions are processed through one or the other depending on your Bank affiliation.

1. PAYMARK – Owned by 4 major Banks and the biggest EFTPOS network in NZ.

Provides for dialup, broadband & Mobile EFTPOS machines.

Currently requires new Merchants to install V6 compliant EFTPOS machines. All machines in NZ must meet this standard by 2014.

Paymark Charges

All merchants –

$11.50 + GST monthly per terminal

Broadband processing

- Add $9.50+ GST monthly per site
- Minimum 24 month connection

Mobile processing (Cellphone based)

- $25 + GST per mobile (sim) one off
- $12.95 + GST for data plan monthly
- Minimum 12 month connection

2. ANZ – Owned by ANZ Bank. Special rates and charges also apply. Please contact us for further information.

The Merchant (YOU)

For a new Merchant, you will need to become affiliated to a major Bank for your Credit card or Debit (EFTPOS) processing.

Ring the Banks centralised Merchant Services, negotiate a Credit card rate with the team, & arrange for the paper work to be completed (Contract) –

For EFTPOS only we can provide the paperwork to you.
